EXAMPLE

This Example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Government Bond Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds.

The Example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Government Bond Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The Example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and that the Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions your costs would be:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Institutional Class	$ 54	$ 170	$ 296	$ 665
Servicing Class	$ 80	$ 249	$ 433	$ 966
Class N	$ 105	$ 328	$ 569	$ 1,259

PORTFOLIO TURNOVER

The Government Bond Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities (or "turns over" its portfolio). A higher portfolio turnover rate may indicate higher transaction costs and may result in higher taxes when Fund shares are held in a taxable account. These costs, which are not reflected in annual fund operating expenses or in the example, affect the Fund's performance. During the most recent fiscal year, the Fund's portfolio turnover rate was 86% of the average value of its portfolio.

PRINCIPAL INVESTMENT STRATEGIES

At least 80% of the Government Bond Fund's net assets (including borrowings for investment purposes) consists of U.S. Government securities either issued or guaranteed by the U.S. Government or its agencies or instrumentalities. The Fund may also purchase prime quality, conforming mortgage-backed securities issued by the U.S. Government or Fannie Mae (formerly known as the Federal National Mortgage Association), Freddie Mac (formerly known as the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation), the Government National Mortgage Association ("Ginnie Mae") or Federal Home Loan Bank ("FHLB") whose maturity and duration are consistent with an intermediate term strategy.

City National Asset Management, Inc. ("CNAM"), the Fund's investment adviser, actively manages the average duration of the Fund's portfolio in accordance with its expectations of interest rate changes as driven by economic trends. The average duration of the Fund's portfolio typically ranges from two to six years. The Government Bond Fund may also invest in the shares of money market mutual funds whose objectives are consistent with those of the Fund.

PRINCIPAL RISKS OF INVESTING IN THE FUND

As with any mutual fund, there are risks to investing. Neither the Government Bond Fund nor CNAM can guarantee that the Fund will meet its investment goal. The Fund will expose you to risks that could cause you to lose money. Here are the principal risks to consider:

The Effect of Interest Rates – The Fund’s yield typically moves in the same direction as movements in short-term interest rates, although it does not do so as quickly.

Market Risk of Fixed Income Securities – The prices of fixed income securities respond to economic developments, particularly interest rate changes, as well as to perceptions about the creditworthiness of individual issuers, including governments. Generally, fixed income securities decrease in value if interest rates rise and increase in value if interest rates fall, with lower rated securities more volatile than higher rated securities. The duration of these securities affects risk as well, with longer term securities generally more volatile than shorter term securities.

Government-Sponsored Entities – The Fund invests in securities issued by government-sponsored entities which may not be guaranteed or insured by the U.S. Government and may only be supported by the credit of the issuing agency.

Issuers – The Fund may be adversely affected if the issuers of securities that the Fund holds do not make their principal or interest payments on time.

Prepayments – As a general rule, prepayments of the principal of the loans underlying mortgage-backed or other pass-through securities increase during a period of falling interest rates and decrease during a period of rising interest rates. In periods of declining interest rates, as a result of prepayments the Fund may be required to reinvest its assets in securities with lower interest rates. In periods of increasing interest rates, the securities subject to prepayment risk held by the Fund may exhibit price characteristics of longer-term debt securities.

Extension – Rising interest rates can cause the average maturity of the Fund’s holdings of mortgage-backed and other pass-through securities to lengthen unexpectedly due to a drop in prepayments. This would increase the sensitivity of the Fund to rising rates and the potential for price declines of portfolio securities.

Rating Agencies – A credit rating is not an absolute standard of quality, but rather a general indicator that reflects only the view of the originating rating agency. If a rating agency revises downward or withdraws its rating of a security in which the Fund invests, that security may become less liquid or may lose value.

Management – The Fund’s performance depends on the portfolio managers’ skill in making appropriate investments. As a result, the Fund may underperform the fixed income market or similar funds.

Defensive Investments – During unusual economic or market conditions, or for temporary defensive or liquidity purposes, the Fund may invest 100% of its assets in cash or cash equivalents that would not ordinarily be consistent with the Fund’s investment goals.

Of course, the Fund’s past performance (before and after taxes) does not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. (1) Previously, the Fund's performance was compared to the Barclays Capital U.S. Intermediate Government Bond Index as its primary benchmark. CNAM has elected to compare the Fund's performance to the Barclays Capital U.S. 1-5 Year Government Bond Index as CNAM believes this is the most appropriate index for comparison to the Fund's performance.

(2) Reflects no deduction for fees, expenses or taxes.

After-tax returns are calculated using the historical highest individual federal marginal income tax rates and do not reflect the impact of state and local taxes. Actual after-tax returns depend on an investor's tax situation and may differ from those shown. The performance of Servicing Class shares does not reflect Class N shares' Rule 12b-1 fees and expenses. After-tax returns for Class N shares and Institutional Class shares will vary from the after-tax returns shown above for Servicing Class shares. The after-tax returns shown are not relevant to investors who hold their Fund shares through tax-deferred arrangements, such as 401(k) plans or individual retirement accounts.
